Hard Work, New Initiatives and Heartfelt Thanks

A message from the Chairperson

I am happy to report that 2007 was another successful year for Burnaby Community Connections. I extend a sincere thanks to our staff for their hard work throughout the year. In particular, I would like to recognize Stephen D'Souza for his exemplary leadership at the Executive Director position.

I also thank the volunteers who served on the Board of Directors this year. Your commitment to the community is an integral part of the agency achieving its goals. Due to your hard work and dedication, we have taken on a number of new initiatives towards implementation of the strategic plan. Through a new committee structure, we have held a successful fundraising dinner/auction, hired a consultant to assist with the development of a fundraising strategy, and developed policies focused on the development & growth of staff.

As part of our continuing effort to establish our new brand, I am pleased to announce the launch of www.burnabycommunityconnections.com. This web-site will be an excellent tool to assist community members access much needed services and foster community engagement.

In conclusion, I offer a heartfelt thanks to our sponsors, volunteers and donors, whose support and willing contribution of time and resources are invaluable to the agency.

I look forward to the next year with anticipation. We appreciate your support and look forward to connecting with you in 2008.

Moving Forward with a Plan

A message from the Executive Director

Burnaby Community Connections continues to demonstrate a commitment to enhancing lives by connecting people to services and fostering connections in our communities. This dedication has been challenging, but has led to incredible accomplishments.

In 2007 we focused on implementing key aspects of our strategic plan to become the agency of choice for people seeking help. We established our new brand, built community partnerships, and significantly invested into our services with our programs and publications being accessed by people 40,253 times over the year.

We intend to continue these strides in 2008 with the launch of a community-driven website and e-newsletters, pilot projects including Burnaby Seniors Link, our move to a more accessible location at the Holdom Resource Center—thanks to the ongoing support of the City of Burnaby—and stewardship of our community stakeholders.

All that we have and will achieve is due to our dedicated staff, caring volunteers and generous contributors. I would like to extend my deepest appreciation to all those that give of themselves to make our community a place to raise a family, live independently and find opportunities to flourish.

Stephen D'Souza

Success, thanks to Generosity

A message from the Program Manager

Burnaby Community Connections continues to focus on providing high quality, dependable programming and ongoing development of new strategies to better serve our community.

The Burnaby Christmas Bureau program was able to provide our clients with food gift certificates and toys for their children for the holiday season. The Camping Bureau program gave Burnaby children from families with low income the opportunity to enjoy the experience of summer camp. The Burnaby Seniors' Transportation program continues to support Burnaby Seniors by providing safe transportation to medical appointments.

Through the generosity and support of our volunteers, donors and sponsors, our programs are able to accomplish far more for the community than we otherwise would hope to achieve. Whether it is driving a senior, organizing toys in our toy room, or donating funds to our programs, they are an important key to our agency's success.

In 2007, the Seniors' Enhanced Referral Network went through the second phase of development. A summer student was hired to develop a process for engaging seniors serving community partners in the program. Information sessions were held and questions and concerns of the potential partners were addressed. The name of the program has been changed to Burnaby Seniors Link, to make it more understandable to the general public and better reflect the program. The next step beginning in August, 2008 is to run pilot projects through a secure registration process on our website for both clients and agencies. With the launch of our new website in 2008, this program will be implemented.
